

TOYOTA WORKERS ON STRIKE

Oh what a feeling!

- Hands off our delegate
- Don't cross the picket line

Toyota
Corner Grieve Pde
and Dohertys Rd
Altona
[melway 54 G1]

Maintenance workers at Toyota in Altona are on strike in support of an AMWU delegate. Tony Brooks a senior delegate is being discriminated against after being guaranteed his job at Altona by Toyota during the Port Melbourne consolidation.

During the consolidation process 795 employees from Port Melbourne had been given an option of either transferring their job to Altona or taking redundancy. The senior AMWU delegate was the only employee not offered his existing position. He was locked out on 29 August and offered a lower skilled job on the production line, he refused and his fellow workers have rallied around him.

Who will be next? If Toyota is taking this stance with the senior delegate what hope has a rank and file worker have? Don't cross the picket.
