

Howard's WorkChoices and the Community

ACTU President Sharan Burrow Speaks in Brimbank

*Wednesday 19 September
1.00pm – 2.00pm*

*Victoria University, St. Albans Campus, McKechnie Street,
Auditorium Lecture Room, 3C42, Building 3,
Melway Map Ref. 26, A2 - Follow signs to the meeting.*

Sharan Burrow will speak on the Federal Government's WorkChoices IR Laws, Australian Workplace Agreements (AWAs) and the coming Federal Elections.

- How the Federal Government's WorkChoices affect our communities.
- How do WorkChoices and other Federal Government's IR Laws affect working conditions, job security and entitlements?
- What rights do we have to ensure fair pay, safe and healthy workplace conditions and a decent standard of living?
- How do unions protect our working conditions, workplace rights and ensure decent community living standards?
- What rights do we have to be treated with dignity and respect by employers?
- How will WorkChoices affect the future generations of working people?

Organised by Victoria University Branch of National Tertiary Education Union.
Contact: 9919 4076 or nteu@vu.edu.au.

Authorised by Richard Gough, NTEU-VU Branch President.

